Writ petition

Shri Mirza, counsel for the petitioner.
Shri Joshi, counsel for the respondent.

CORAM :D.D. SINHA AND
SMT. VASANTI A. NAIK, JJ.

DATED : NOVEMBER 26, 2007.

Heard Shri F.T. Mirza, the learned counsel for the petitioner and Shri Rohit Joshi, the learned counsel for the respondent.

The learned counsel for the petitioner states that the grievance of the petitioner in the present writ petition is that as per the advertisement dated 14.06.2007 issued by the Indian Oil Corporation, the permission to start Kisan Sewa Kendra was required to be established only at the location or place which is neither on National or State high way. However, in the instant case, pursuant to the said advertisement, the Indian Oil

Corporation is intending to grant permission to start the Kisan Sewa Kendra in Dhamangaon town which is located on a State high way.

The learned counsel for the Indian Oil Corporation disputes the contention canvassed by the counsel for the petitioner and categorically states that the location of the place for which permission is granted pursuant to the said advertisement to start Kisan Sewa Kendra is neither on State or National high way and is situated at Old Dhamangaon on Major District Road No.37.

There is no reason for us to disbelieve the statement made by the learned counsel for the Indian Oil Corporation in absence of malafides and in view of the said statement, the grievance made by the petitioner does not survive. Consequently, the petition is dismissed accordingly.
